To provide high quality excellent education in the arena of technical and professional education and to impart knowledge in a structured fashion to the student community, Late. Shri. P.K. Being a man of great vision, commitment, perseverance, dedication and devotion, he pioneered revolutionary and innovative thoughts to revamp technical and professional education in the private sector. He was committed to the cause of the poor and social welfare and undertook various initiatives such as donating wheel-chairs, tailoring machines, and tricycles to the physically challenged, providing free education and medical treatment to the backward class, and donating homes for the homeless.

The trust also has constituted over a thousand scholarships and awards for the needy children from various orphanages and schools in and around Coimbatore. The elegance of work culture and charisma instilled by the Chairman still continues to vitalize the synchronized progress of the Nehru Group of Institutions, making it a prestigious centre of learning and research. Let us all be blessed by the might of this great soul, who undoubtedly illuminates our path towards greater glory and success.
